

Selected Models of Democracy in Optics of Consensus, Authority and Justice

Author: Lenka Korpášová korpas2@gmail.com

Source: Social and Political Analyses, 2013, Vol.7, No.1, pp:1-17

Document Type: theoretical – analytical paper

Key Words: democracy society consensus form of government common good justice

Abstract:

The main idea of democracy is to create the fairest regime for members of the society. The study presents selected models of democracy, which were naturally created during the development of society. Prerequisite for the creation of various conceptions and models of democracy is different understanding of justice, equality and freedom, determined by the process of development of human society. The aim of the study is a review of the basic approaches to understand, define and study democracy and also the search of connection of various forms of democracy in their different applications. The study provides an interpretation and summary of the underlying conceptions of democracy through explanation of the key terms – relevant terms- consensus, good, authority, government, compared to the selected models, the preparation of the underlying conceptions of democracy as the base for study of one of the principles of democracy- justice.

ISSN: 1337 5555

Publisher : UPJŠ in Košice, Faculty of Arts, Department of Political Science
Petzvalova 4, 040 01 Košice

Publisher URL: <http://www.sapa.upjs.ff.sk>

Reviewed: yes

Frequency 2